Desmond Ferguson Bio

Desmond is from Lansing, Michigan. Graduated from Lansing Everett High School. He attended the University of Missouri in 1996 on a basketball scholarship, then transferred to the University Of Detroit (UofD), in 1996 and graduated in 2000 with a degree in Business Administration/Accounting. While at U of D, helped guide his team to two consecutive second round appearances in the NCAA tournament.

Finished as the only player in U of D history to record 70 three pointers or more in three consecutive seasons. In 2002, Desmond founded Moneyball Sportsweare, an athletic clothing line that specializes in making custom made sports uniforms. Played professional basketball overseas in countries such as: Holland, Philippines, Spain, Bulgaria, Germany, Dominican Republic, and Canada. He also played in the NBA with the Portland Trailblazers in 2004.

Retired from playing basketball in 2011 after 11 seasons and was formerly the Head Boys Basketball Coach at his alma mater Lansing Everett High School. Desmond currently runs Moneyball Sportsweare full time, where they have 2 stores in Lansing and a new third store located in Southfield, MI.
